SEPTEMBER MEETINGS

What an exciting month September has been for ALIQUANTUM.

We started off in Glasgow on the 12th September and met some fabulous ladies. We had a great evening followed by an almost equivalent length of time chatting in the bar afterwards! Yours truly learned a great deal about the regional networking differences in Scotland and it was a very enjoyable night at a superb venue in the Strathclyde Country Park. I am really looking forward to the next meeting there in November.

Our next foray required a slightly shorter journey time! The first ALIQUANTUM event in Chester took place on the 19th September. Yet another successful event was completely enhanced by our Guest Speaker, Sandy Lindsay of Tangerine PR who held the audience spellbound and then ran a mini-workshop to provide the audience with the opportunity to learn some of the basic steps in achieving effective PR. A huge thank you goes to Margaret Booth of Enerbooth who manned the Reception desk with such style and Amanda Walker of Diamond Visions for coming along from the Manchester Group to support the event.

Preston was the next event on the ALIQUANTUM calendar in September. This was another 'first event' for us and what a good evening it was! As with the Chester event we met some lovely new ladies and we had the support of some of the founder members of ALIQUANTUM. Eileen Graham of Training By Example, Louise Walsh who is a Preston based Accountant and Karen Williams of Ambient Photography all came along to the event. Thanks to them all for their support. We should have some interesting photographs from this event as Karen ended up in some very precarious places to get 'just the right shot' at another great venue!

Finally, but by no means least, the Manchester event took place on the 27th September at our usual venue at Worsley Old Hall. We took some time out to look in detail at networking techniques and how networking can impact positively on our individual businesses. We shared hints and tips about dealing with the unexpected and the challenging in business life and the steps we can take to grow our business positively by being proactive. All-in-all it was a very rewarding evening and I sincerely hope that everyone who attended got as much from the event as I did.

ALIQUANTUM in October

Don't forget the 24th October! This is your opportunity to have a superb night out, bring a friend or a member of your family.

FROM PARIS AND NEW YORK TO MANCHESTER!

HAUTE COUTURE COMES TO TOWN

A Make-up, Hair and Fashion Show will take place at Swinton Park Golf Club, East Lancashire Road, Manchester M27 5LX on Tuesday, 24th October. The event – which will raise money for three charities - is themed for ladies who want to look good in the real world where size zero doesn't even come into the conversation.

This open event has been created for any lady who wishes to attend who is interested in make-up, hair design and fashion.

The clothes worn by the 'models' (members of ALIQUANTUM of all shapes and sizes who have donated their time) are top designer labels supplied by dress agency Sequels and who knows which rich and famous body may have worn them once before? The professional make-up and hair studio team from Making Faces will be on hand to make the models look glamorous as well as providing advice and guidance to members of the audience who wish to take advantage of their expertise. There will also be a team from Rossendale Shoe Company on hand to share tips on how to ensure you buy the right shoes to give you comfort as well as style.

The show starts at 6:00 p.m. and the £15.00 admission fee includes a light buffet with tea and coffee as well as networking and a fantastic free prize draw. The attendance fee will be £15.00 across the board and for ALIQUANTUM members there will be a £5.00 reduction off their attendance fee for every paying guest they bring along, up to a maximum of 3 guests.
